NOTICE.

The Publishers of The Unitarian would give notice that after the present number the publication of this journal will be discontinued,—arrangements having been made for the transfer of their subscription-list to the proprietor of The Christian Register, a weekly religious paper, printed in Boston, and edited by the Rev. Sidney Willard. The high character to which The Register has attained, under the care of its present accomplished and able editor, is such as to render any recommendation of it from us wholly unnecessary. The public are sufficiently aware that, both as respects the ability with which it is conducted, and the interest with which it is universally read, it now yields to no journal of its class, by whatever denomination issued. It is therefore with much satisfaction that we find ourselves enabled to offer to our patrons this substitute for The Unitarian. The Register will be sent to our subscribers generally. Those who do not wish to receive it, are requested to signify the same, previously to the first of January, by returning some one of the numbers which may be sent them, directed to "The Christian Register, Boston, Mass."
